X112 BUS

The much publicised loss of school contracts has put a major strain on Blueworks' ability to maintain the current service. There will almost certainly be an overhaul of the present timetable in the near future. In the meantime we would urge everyone to use the bus as much as possible.

Next fund raising event is a Coffee Morning in the Coronation Hall, Ulverston, on Thursday, 19th July from 9.30 to 11.30 am

This year's RNLI Gala is on Sunday, 15th July.

Thanks to the Ladies Lifeboat Guild our stall in aid of Hall Funds will be a Jam Jar Tombola.

Donations of prizes would be greatly appreciated. Anything would be welcomed, it does not have to fit inside a jam jar, we will put notes into the jars to correspond with the prize

RAMPSIDE GIRL GUIDES

Rampside Guides re-started two years ago with three girls. We now have thirteen girls registered and would really appreciate some extra help. Would anyone be willing to come along each week and assist me?

We meet on Mondays 6 to 7.30 pm (during term time only) in Rampside Village Hall. You could take the leadership qualification if you wanted but this is certainly only an option and not required. What would be required, however, would be supplying two references and agreeing to a DBS check.

This is because you would be working with children.

PLEASE consider helping me—contact Karen at kbrownowls@gmail.com for more details

SAVE THE DATE

Saturday 17th November. A live theatre production "The Haunted Man " More details later

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH
