HARVEST FESTIVAL
Rampside Village Hall
Sunday 7th October 11 am
Everyone welcome—please come and invite your friends
We are collecting non-perishable items to donate to the Barrow Foodbank. Currently the Foodbank would welcome tea bags, coffee, sponge puddings, jam, tinned fruit and UHT fruit juice. They would also appreciate donations of toiletries, cleaning products, baby items and cat and dog food. They do not need tins of baked beans—they get too many. Any donations would be gratefully received on the Sunday morning or beforehand. Please check that all donated items are dated 2019 or later as the Foodbank cannot issue out-of-date food. Thank you

X112 BUS UPDATE
A last minute rescue package in July meant that the service survived but a new timetable starting September 4th will be greatly reduced operating only on Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays. Early morning and late afternoon buses will not run any more. Timetables will be available as soon as possible.
This is not what we wanted but is better than nothing at all. We will continue to explore all avenues to try and improve things but in the meantime please continue to support the service.
If you want to find more about the present situation there will be two meetings in the Village Hall on Tuesday, 11th September. One following the Coffee Morning and the second at 7pm.
Please come if you can.
